SIR,

In continuation of my letter No.R.1299 dated 19-1-22 submitting revised rules for the Accountants' Examination for the approval of Government, I have the honour to state that in the reorganisation of 1918 of the Accounts Department, no separate cadre was fixed for the typists of this office but their appointments were included in the General Scale of Accountants and Accounts Clerks. The rules while exempting typists from passing the Accounts Higher Examination for promotion in the clerical service do not provide for their further advancement. The scale of pay of typists has of late been improved in the several departments of the State and therefore necessary to hold out some prospects to the typists of this office as well. It would be hard on these men if in spite of their technical qualifications which entitle them to special grades of pay in other departments, they are required to pass the Accountants' Examination to render themselves eligible for promotion to the grade of Accountants. I would therefore propose that typists with Shorthand qualifications who have passed the Advanced Grade

The previous reference quoted by the comptroller is put up. Hag. W. A copy of the G.o. dated 20. 13/18 sanctioning the reorganisation of the comptroller's office is also put up. (S).

2) The comptroller points out that in the reorganisation order of 1918 no separate cadre for the typists was fixed & according to rules they too have to pass the Accountants Exam^n for rendering themselves eligible for promotion to the grade of accounts. He requests exemption that typists with shorthand qualifications who have passed the advanced grade of typewriting or shorthand be exempted from this rule in view of the concessions shown to them in other departments.

3) In this connection it is (pointed out that) prior to 1920 there were three grades in mysore (Elementary intermediate & advanced) and since 1920 there are only two grades junior & senior. It is not clear whether the advanced exam^n referred to in the letter does not includes also the new senior old grade (mysore).
